

1 a farm devoted to agricultural use from any exemption?

2 DELEGATE CASE: You mean it could completely ex-
3 empt it, as distinguished from giving it a different type of
4 assessment, because we are talking about two different
5 things.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Clagett.

7 DELEGATE CLAGETT: Let us take it the other way
8 around. They could refuse to give it any special assess-
9 ment for exemption classification.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Case.

11 DELEGATE CASE: No, they could not.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: I am afraid, Delegate
13 Clagett, by the use of the word "exemption" in connection
14 with that sentence it may have confused them.
15 You said classification or exemption. Would you separate
16 the two?

17 DELEGATE CLAGETT: Let us take them in order.

18 Could it exclude the land devoted to agricul-
19 tural use from classification?

20 DELEGATE CASE: In my judgment, it could not.

21 DELEGATE CLAGETT: Now, then --
